1. PURPOSE

This instruction establishes policies and procedures for the planning and programming of Security Assistance English language training for international military students (IMS) at the Defense Language Institute English Language Center (DLIELC), Lackland Air Force Base, Texas. It implements ref (b), the authority document for the Defense English Language Program (DELP).

2. APPLICABILITY

The provisions of this instruction apply to the Resident Programs Branch (LEXP) and all DoD component agencies and/or their designated representatives in the planning, programming and administration of the Security Assistance English Language Program.

3. POLICY

3.1. IMSS are selected for training at DLIELC under the Security Assistance Training Program (SATP) as directed by ref (c), Chapter 10 and this instruction.

3.2. DLIELC will conduct all English language training required by IMSS for entry into technical, professional, and military training in the Continental United States (CONUS) under the provisions of International Military Education and Training (IMET) or Foreign Military Sales (FMS) guidelines. The Defense Security Cooperation Agency (DSCA) may approve exceptions to the latter on a case-by-case basis.

3.3. Procedures for the appointment of Test Control Officers (TCOs), administration of the DLIELC ECL test, procurement of testing materials and disposition of testing materials used in the selection and programming of IMSS for English language training at DLIELC are defined in ref (d).

3.4. Procedures for the management and administration of the DLIELC OPI program are defined in ref (e).

4. RESPONSIBILITIES

4.1. Military Department (MILDEP) program managers are responsible for:

4.1.1. Submitting training requirements to DLIELC for scheduling purposes on a bimonthly basis by means of a service-unique program document: Air Force Security Assistance Training (AFSAT) Location Training List (LTL), Security Assistance Training Field Activity (SATFA) Standard Training List (STL) and Naval Education and Training Security Assistance Field Activity (NETSAFA) Student Training Analysis and Tracking Information System (STATIS).

4.1.2. Ensuring training requirements include the country code; service sponsor; project (IMET or FMS); worksheet control number (WCN); Military Articles and Services List Item Identification Number (MASL IIN); MASL title; course number; training duration; required ECL; scheduled report, start and end dates at DLIELC; officer (O) or enlisted (E) and complete follow-on-training (FOT) data.

4.1.3. Submitting requests for changes, additions, deletions or rescheduling actions as soon as possible. (Assessment charges for late notification or student "no shows" as defined in ref [b] will apply.) Message address is COMDT DLIELC LACKLAND AFB TX//LEXP//.

4.2. Security Assistance Officers (SAO) and CONUS user agencies will ensure all students meet the necessary language qualifications for English as a prerequisite for CONUS training courses, as follows:

4.2.1. Minimum ECL entry requirement for English language training at DLIELC for IMET students is 55 or as defined in ref (c). Requests for exceptions to this requirement are submitted through channels to DSCA.

4.2.2. There is no minimum entry ECL requirement for English language training at DLIELC for FMS students.

4.2.3. Students programmed for both General English and Specialized English Training (SET) (MASL IIN B/D/P177009) at DLIELC must achieve the ECL and/or OPI required for the FOT course before transfer into SET.

4.2.4. Students programmed for only SET (MASL IIN B/D/P177008) at DLIELC must have achieved the required ECL and the OPI, if required, for the FOT course before entering SET.

4.2.5. Students programmed for English language instructor or program management courses at DLIELC must achieve the minimum prerequisite ECL specified for the course before entry. Additional English language training under either MASL IIN B/P/D177009 or MASL IIN B/P/D177027 may be programmed to precede these courses if required. Course descriptions, ECL requirements and class start dates are defined in Encl E1.

4.2.6. Aviation students not meeting the OPI requirement may be programmed for additional training under MASL IIN B/P/D177026.

Note: See Encl E2 for programming guidance and recommended training time for CONUS English language training. Recommended training time includes SET following the completion of the General English Training (GET) phase. SET is considered a part of the American Language Course (ALC), MASL IIN B/D/P177009 and provides basic technical terminology and language skills pertinent to the students' FOT courses. The training times recommended are minimum durations only and may be exceeded if, in the judgement of the programming agency, additional training time will be required due to factors pertinent to the specific country/student.

5. PROCEDURES

5.1. The ECL test will be administered in-country to all CONUS student candidates, and the resulting scores will be used to determine appropriate English language training durations (Encl E2). ECL scores, date, and form number (e.g., 2000A) should be included on Invitational Travel Orders (ITO) in accordance with ref (c) Chapter 10. The Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) scores for students programmed for B/D/P177022 should also be included.

5.2. All students arriving at DLIELC will be administered an entry ECL test to determine their current ECL. DLIELC will report ECL discrepancies of 11 or more points to the sponsoring service. The report of an ECL discrepancy will include the recommendation for reprogramming or other actions.

5.3. Students will be entered into the appropriate level of the ALC as determined by the confirmed entry ECL score.

5.4. Students scheduled for only SET training will be placed in the General English training phase if they do not achieve the ECL needed for SET entry. If they fail to qualify for SET entry within two weeks, they will be reprogrammed to MASL IIN B/D/P177009. The service sponsor will be advised of the student's failure to qualify and rescheduling/disposition actions will be requested.

5.5. An OPI may be administered in-country via telephone or by a Mobile Training Team (MTT), ref (e). All students with an OPI requirement for FOT will be administered an entry OPI at DLIELC. Students who have previously attained the required OPI level via telephone or MTT in-country will normally be administered an entry OPI for statistical purposes only, as an in-country OPI score is valid for six months. The OPI date, score and DLI-designated code should be included in the ITO remarks section.

5.6. Unaccompanied students will be scheduled to arrive at DLIELC no later than 1700 on Wednesday preceding the scheduled Monday start date.

5.7. Students arriving with family members should be scheduled to arrive at DLIELC a minimum of seven workdays before the scheduled class start date to allow time for arrangement of off-base housing, transportation, etc.

5.8. In order for identification (ID) cards to be issued to family members, the ITO must contain a statement authorizing family members to accompany or join the student at no expense to the US government. All students should be briefed, prior to departure, that any dependents arriving with or joining the student will not be issued an ID card if the basic ITO does not contain this statement, and consequently will not have access to the base exchange, commissary, billeting, etc. ITOs will be prepared and copies provided to initial and FOT NLT two weeks prior to class start date at the first training installation. IAW ref (b).

5.9. Arrival notification will be provided as directed in ref (b).

PROGRAMMING INFORMATION FOR FY03/04 ELT COURSES

E1.1. American Language Course, MASL IIN B/D/P177009

This course is variable in length (minimum 10 weeks to receive a diploma), includes GET and SET and may be scheduled to start any week.

E1.2. American Language Course (GET only), MASL IIN B/D/P177027

This course is variable in length (minimum 10 weeks to receive a diploma), includes GET only and may be scheduled to start any week.

E1.3. American Language Course (SET only), MASL IIN B/D/P177008

This nine-week course focuses on language/study skills and terminology associated with technical training and professional military education. It may be scheduled to start any week. Students must achieve the ECL and OPI (if applicable) requirements for entry into the follow-on technical or professional course before entry into this course.

E1.4. American Language Course for Aviation Leadership Program Scholarship (ALC ALP Scholarship), MASL IIN B/D/P177024

This MASL is established for AF ALP Scholarship students and is used for funding purposes only. Basically, training is the same as MASL IIN 177008 or 177009. All students will complete aviation SET; students who do not have their required ECL must attend GET; students who do not have their required OPI must attend the OPSAV course. (See E1.6.)

E1.5. Advanced English Language Program (AELP), MASL IIN B/D/P177031

This 16-week advanced English language course is designed for students who need to improve their language skills, with an emphasis on speaking and writing. This course prepares students who have not yet met their ECL and OPI requirements for professional military education training courses, officer basic and advanced courses, etc. The development of speaking skills is emphasized through formal speeches, military briefings, oral reports and small group discussion. Aural comprehension is enhanced through the use of video and audiotapes, classroom lectures and televised newscasts.

As part of the writing skill development phase, students are required to prepare formal compositions, military memos and letters, library reports and a long book review or research paper. The writing is done using word processing on available computers and many of the speech presentations are accomplished through the use of computer software. Because of this, an introduction to basic computer skills (as appropriate) is also a part of the course. Prerequisites for this course are an 80 ECL and OPI rating of 2 (comprehension)/2 (speaking).

E1.6. Oral Proficiency Skills for Aviation (OPSAV) Course, MASL IIN B/D/P177026

This course concentrates on language skills needed by students going to aviation-related training. The course enables students to improve pronunciation for successful radio communication, to improve comprehension skills under adverse conditions, to practice immediate oral responses and to practice speaking while performing a complex motor task. This is a 25-week course, the last nine weeks being in SET. Students must meet the ECL requirement for FOT prior to entrance into the OPSAV course. It is strongly recommended that potential students of OPSAV be given a telephonic OPI in their homeland prior to scheduling them for the course. If they achieve the OPI score required by their FOT, they need not be programmed for the OPSAV course.

E1.7. Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) Preparation and Academic Writing Course, MASL IIN D177022

This 16-week course develops the advanced English Language skills necessary to compete successfully at university level and to improve a minimum entry TOEFL score of 173. The course emphasizes the development of academic writing skills for university-level students and includes completion of one major research paper and numerous other writing assignments. The program consists of seven hours of classroom/computer lab instruction and two to three hours of homework and preparation per day. Students will be given the opportunity to take the official TOEFL twice during the course. In addition, students will be given the OPI at appropriate stages in their training. Prerequisite for the course is an 85 ECL or a 173 TOEFL score. There is a minimum enrollment requirement of six students.

E1.8. Materials Development Summer Seminar, MASL IIN D177030

This eight-week course provides the international English Language Specialist (ELS) with the basics of materials development, test-item writing and desktop publishing. Curriculum development has four phases: needs analysis, design, development and implementation, with evaluation occurring throughout the whole process. Each phase will be explored and relevant writing assignments will give the ELS students some hands-on practice. Students will use computers to complete all writing assignments. Other important topics that will be covered are language learning and methodology, the writing of learning objectives, the development of audiotapes and validation procedures. In order to make the course more useful, ELS students should come prepared with specific ideas for curriculum projects. Prerequisites are an 85 ECL, an EFL teaching degree, at least two years classroom teaching experience and writing and word processing skills. Only one seminar is offered each summer. Contact DLIELC/LEXP for exact course dates. There is a minimum enrollment requirement of six students and a maximum enrollment of eight students.

E1.9. Language Laboratory Maintenance Training, MASL IIN D177011

This eight-week course provides classroom instruction and practical application in the maintenance, repair and operation of cassette language laboratories. It is conducted in a classroom laboratory, which is equipped with the General Electric Laboratories (GEL) IC 6 and IC - 4M systems. Prerequisites are a 70 ECL and previous electronics experience or successful completion of a basic electronics course. SET, MASL D177008, cannot be used to meet the prerequisite of a basic electronics course. Individuals who do not have the prerequisite electronics background must be programmed for the four-week electronics course, MASL B139901, at Fort Gordon, GA. The maximum enrollment for each course offering is six students.

Instructor Courses

E1.10. Basic American Language Instructor Course (BALIC), MASL IIN D177007

This 27-week course is designed to prepare international military and civilian personnel who are nonnative speakers of English to teach the ALC in their countries. Primary course objectives include the improvement of the instructor trainees' English language skills. The trainees receive practice in advanced listening, speaking and reading skills with special emphasis on writing skills. The course includes a practical review of grammar, basic phonology concepts, speaking and writing activities and readings on American culture. Another critical objective of the course is to teach instructor trainees how to teach American English using the General English materials of the ALC. This portion of the course introduces instructor trainees to the ALC materials, providing them with instructional techniques to effectively teach the materials as well as familiarization with the use of videotapes and IMI in the classroom. The course provides instructor trainees with opportunities for peer-teaching portions of the ALC and observing classes in the General English Branch of DLIELC. Prerequisites for this course are an ECL score of 80 and freedom from any speech impediment. Some teaching experience is desirable; however, instructors with university degrees in teaching EFL or with extensive experience teaching EFL should be programmed for advanced courses. (See chart at the end of this section.)

This 16-week course is designed for graduates of the BALIC, or equivalent, who have at least two years' experience teaching EFL in their countries. A major objective of the course is to improve English proficiency with an emphasis on oral and written communication. The methodology objectives include advanced teaching techniques focused on teaching the ALC Books 25 to 34. Student evaluation and assessment are also addressed, (including an overview of the OPI) and a familiarization with the use of videotapes and IMI in the classroom is included. E1.12. Advanced Language Proficiency Skills (ALPS) Course, MASL IIN D177018

This 12-week course is designed for experienced teachers of EFL who have attended BALIC or AELIC, for English Language Training Program (ELTP) management or staff personnel and for academic subject matter teachers who use English as a medium of instruction. The course enables students to upgrade their own English language proficiency in the skill areas of listening, speaking, reading and writing. Students are provided the opportunity to develop and demonstrate their proficiency and fluency in all language skills, thereby increasing their communicative competence. ALPS emphasizes development of English language skills rather than teaching methodology.

This course can be programmed as a lead-in to MASL IINs D177006, 177013, or 177019. Prerequisite for the course is an 80 ECL.

E1.13. Introduction to the American Language Course and Culture Seminar (INTRO), MASL IIN D177019

This eight-week course is designed for experienced instructors who have not recently attended the BALIC. The course will provide an in-depth review and explanation of the ALC materials (both intensive and nonintensive). Innovative teaching strategies in the ALC will be closely examined and practiced through peer teaching. The course will also introduce the students to a broad spectrum of American culture, including history, government, social institutions, the arts and manners and mores, through a series of student-led seminars. These seminars will afford them extensive opportunities to improve their English. Cultural tours, which support the themes and functions in the ALC, are included in the design of the course. In addition, a number of videotaped teaching demonstrations of DLIELC instructors using the ALC materials, as well as scheduled visits to DLIELC classrooms, the IMI labs and the Learning Center, will provide students the opportunity to see the materials in action and will provide familiarization with the videotapes and IMI lessons which support the ALC texts. Prerequisites for the course are an 80 ECL, two years' experience as an EFL teacher and completion of a basic English language instructor course. There is a minimum enrollment requirement of six students.

NOTES:

1. Guidance is for IMSS programmed for MASL IIN B/D/P177009, which includes nine weeks for the SET phase of the ALC.

2. The ECL test is not designed to discriminate within a score range of 0 to 29. Based on DLIELC experience, the average student will progress from zero proficiency level to a score of 30 in about 15 weeks. The ECL test is of no value in tracking progression during this period. Progress in an in-country training program should be measured with the American Language Course Placement Test (ALCPT), not the ECL.

3. Students lacking the required OPI rating, as determined by FOT MASL, will be programmed for MASL INN B/D/P 177026, which includes nine weeks of SET. ALC for Aviation Leadership Program Scholarship students lacking the required OPI rating will be programmed for MASL D177028, which includes nine weeks of SET (for accounting purposes).
